PROCEDURES FOR HAND-HELD DIGITAL CAMERA USE

- Only a hand-held digital camera is allowed. Please do not use a flash. You may not use a tripod, special lighting (except that provided by Special Collections staff) or extra equipment, or take any extraordinary measures, such as standing on furniture, to take a photograph.
- When taking photographs of pages in a book, the book must remain in a book cradle at all times. Do not attempt to flatten out the book.
- You will be supplied with a "Saint Louis University Libraries Special Collections" slip which must be included on each page you photograph.
- Not more than 10% of a published work in copyright may be reproduced and not more than 25% of a manuscript or archival collection may be reproduced.
- The Special Collections Department reserves the right to prohibit the photographing of any of its holdings.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING USE OF REPRODUCTIONS MADE WITH HAND-HELD DIGITAL CAMERAS

- Reproductions made under this agreement are for private study, use in scholarly presentations, or research purposes only. Images for web or print publication or for exhibition must be ordered through the library.
- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to allow the making of reproductions. One of these specified conditions is that the reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If the user later uses a reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. The user agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Saint Louis University against all claims, demands, costs and expenses incurred by copyright infringement or any other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from the use of the Library's materials.

I have read and agree to the Procedures, Terms, and Conditions under which I am allowed to photograph Special Collections materials.
