March 30, 2015

Instructional Services Librarian
Pius XII Memorial Library
Saint Louis University

Saint Louis University, a Catholic, Jesuit institution dedicated to student learning, research, health care, and service is seeking applicants for the position of Instructional Services Librarian, Pius XII Memorial Library.

Duties
• Participation in general reference and instructional services in a team-based environment. Includes some evening and weekend hours.
• Provide leadership and expertise in the assessment of the effectiveness of the library’s instruction program, in monitoring the implementation of ACRL’s revised Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education, and in enhancing the library’s subject based instruction activities.
• Collaborate with library and campus faculty and staff on the design and development of effective and high quality learning materials (effective active learning techniques, tutorials, how-to videos, etc.) that support instruction in information literacy skills and in the use of library resources and services.
• Manages and creates information literacy content on the web, including tutorials for the Freshman Writing Program.
• Serves as the library’s liaison to the School for Professional Studies, English for Academic Purposes, 1818 Advanced College Credit Program, and the Reinert Center for Transformative Teaching & Learning.

Required Qualifications
• Master’s degree in library or information science from a program accredited by the American Library Association (or the appropriate national body of another country).
• Demonstrated commitment to instruction and information literacy.
• Experience designing and creating tutorials, learning objects, or other curricular resources in a variety of mediums.
• Strong organizational, interpersonal skills, positive public service orientation, effective oral/written communication skills, initiative, flexibility, commitment to professional growth, and research and analytic skills in a dynamic environment.
• Enthusiasm for working with diverse constituencies in an effective manner.

Preferred Qualifications
• Two or more years of professional library experience.
• Two or more years of successful instruction experience.
• Formal training or certification in instructional design or education technology.
• Awareness of emerging trends in librarianship, information literacy and the landscape of higher education.
• Fluency with the ACRL’s Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education.

Rank
Assistant Professor, non-tenure track, 12-month appointment.

Salary
Competitive salary. Attractive benefits including retirement program, insurance, tuition remission, vacation, and holidays.

Deadline
Screening will begin April 30 and will continue until position is filled. Anticipated start date is Summer, 2015.
To Apply  All applications must be made online at http://jobs.slu.edu and include a cover letter addressing qualifications for position, application, curriculum vita, and names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three current professional references (university placement file is not acceptable). Please refer to Requisition Number 20141104. All other correspondence regarding this position may be sent to Instruction Services Librarian Search Committee, Pius XII Memorial Library, 3650 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63108-3302. Saint Louis University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer (AA/EOE) and encourages nominations of and application from women and minorities. For information about Pius XII Memorial Library, see http://lib.slu.edu.